Here are some comments from parents about our program:

My child really loved going to school and talked about it constantly!

I loved that Bible stories were incorporated into the curriculum.

Our family has been strongly satisfied and highly impressed with the program at Kitty's Kids. The teachers are creative and nurturing.

My child has grown emotionally and socially since he started.

We are very pleased with the education our daughter has received here at Kitty's Kids. We feel that our daughter is ready for Kindergarten.

I love that the classes are small. I feel each child gets lots of personalized attention. I would definitely recommend this preschool to others.

The teachers are very friendly and positive! My child was excited to go to school every day!

Music, Library, and Chapel Time are all a bonus!

I have been so happy with the programs and the staff...best decision I ever made!

I feel that my child has been well prepared for Kindergarten, both academically and socially. She has grown to love school already, for which I am very grateful to her teachers.

The teachers are very loving and treat the kids with respect.
